

第一級海上特殊無線技士「英会話」試験問題

(注) 解答方法： 選択肢の中から最も適切な答えを一つ選び、その番号に対応する答案用紙のマーク欄を黒く塗りつぶしなさい。

QUESTION 1 Nagoya Maru, this is Port City. You have anchored in the wrong position. Anchor in the position designated by the harbor master.

1. Understood. I will stay where I am.
2. I understand. I am waiting for the harbor master to see me.
3. I understand. I will tell the harbor master my present position.
4. Understood. I will heave up anchor immediately and proceed to the correct position.

QUESTION 2 Tokai Maru, this is Port Control. Your berth is North Pier Number Two, but it is occupied now. Wait where you are until 1400 hours local time.

1. Understood. I will wait here until the designated time.
2. I understand. I will arrive at the designated berth in four hours.
3. I understand. I will search for an empty berth by myself in the port.
4. Understood. I will proceed and wait at a point near my berth until the designated time.

QUESTION 3 Misaki Maru, this is Coast Guard Radio. We have been informed you have engine trouble and have an injured crew member. What assistance is required?

1. I require a pilot.
2. I need bunkering and a pilot.
3. I require two tugs and a helicopter for the injured crew member.
4. I am proceeding to the port to have the injured crew member see a doctor.

QUESTION 4 Nemuro Maru, this is headquarters. We have just heard you have been in a heavy snow storm. What time do you expect to get into port?

1. I will arrive on time because the sea condition is fair.
2. I will arrive three hours ahead of schedule because of the strong head wind.
3. I estimate I will arrive slightly earlier than expected because of the rough sea.
4. I expect to arrive behind schedule because the waves are high and visibility is poor.

QUESTION 5 Coast Guard Radio, this is Harumi Maru. I have requested ice-breaking assistance but the ice-breaker has not arrived yet. Tell us the situation.

1. The tug boats you requested are on the way.
2. ADVICE. Be careful of the iceberg on the approach to our port.
3. The ice-breaker is moving more slowly than expected but will be there in less than one hour.
4. Thank you for your ice breaking assistance. We can enter the port by ourselves now.